Dear Harold:

A Heritage Of Stone is a curious document.

Although fairly well written, it repeats critiques against the "Pentagonized" State and the Vietnam involvement derivitative of academic studies.

Such books as The Warfare State, A History of the Cold War, To Move A Nation, etc. are cited in the text.

Not cited except in "The Notes" are the names of yourself and Clay Shaw, as well as other critics- Meagher, Epstein, Lifton, Thompson, Sprague, Marcus----.

Evidently, Vincent Salandria and Ralph Schoenman were the guiding hands and received "Acknowledgement" as did Mort Sahl.

William Turner was not "Acknowledged" and some allege that Garrison suspected Him of being an F.B.I. "Plant".

Garrison implies that Breck Wall, Bruce Ray Carlin, Lawrence Meyers, and The Paines were involved but never says exactly "How".

Why bother with "Trivia". The D.A. indicts a man for "Conspiracy to Assassinate J.F.K.", writes a book about the case, and never mentions the "Conspirator", Edgar Eugene Bradley even in passing!

Really, what can you say?

Sincerely,

Edward R. Williams
